THE STORY

The future, 200 years from now

A planet called Dan Star, populated by hot-blooded guys.

At the edge of the known universe lies the planet Dan Star, a USH (United Stars of Humanity) colony populated by hot-blooded guys.

Here Riki Makishi, an impetuous teenager, operates as a rookie officer in the People's Police (PP) - Dan Star's civilian peace keeping force run by his father, Ban Makishi. Riki spends all of his spare time working for the PP (much to the detriment of his school grades), vigorously pursuing his dream of becoming the chief of the PP like his father before him. However, Dan Star is a peaceful planet, and because of Riki's low rank he is mostly assigned to trivial civilian emergencies like finding stray pets or sewage inspection. But all that is about to change...

The notorious intergalactic crime syndicate, the SF Kosmo Gang, is moving its operations into USH space. According to USH intelligence reports, the syndicate has already established a commanding presence on several USH stars, and is expanding its criminal empire at an alarming rate. It looks like Dan Star is the next planet to be targeted.

The source of the SF Kosmo Gang's power is their control of the Space Fruit trade. The syndicate has set up a network of well defended space ports on planets across the galaxy, and uses them to secretly smuggle these precious Space Fruits, selling them on the black market at super inflated prices. They then use the profits of space fruit peddling to produce new weapons and equipment with which to enforce their regime of terror. To stop the gang, you must disrupt their control of the Space Fruit trade.

Can Riki, the self proclaimed "Man of all Men", defend Dan Star against the evil SF Kosmo Gang? Can he shut down the gang's Space Fruit trade smuggling operation? Will his school grades ever improve?

Riki Makishi (The Hero)

Impulsive, arrogant, but good natured, Riki is a typical Dan Star teenager. An officer of the People's Police force, Riki pilots the Bangai-O into battle against the SF Kosmo Gang.

Mami Makishi (Riki's sister)

A quiet, intelligent girl, Mami is always in a good mood. She is loyal to her family and aids them in any way she can.

NOTE: Control Port can also be referred to as Port.

Bangai-O is a 1 player game. Before turning the Sega Dreamcast power ON, connect the Controller or other peripheral equipment into the Control Ports of the Sega Dreamcast.

SAVING DATA

In order to save your game you must insert a VMU with at least five blocks free into the Sega Dreamcast Controller in port A before you power on the system. Your score, configuration data, and other options are automatically saved at the end of each level. To create a Bangai-O save game file, the memory card must have 5 vacant blocks.

While saving a game file,
NEVER TURN OFF the
Sega Dreamcast power,
remove the memory card
or disconnect the Controller.

CONTROLLING BANGAI-O!

CONTROL

Bangai-O moves in the direction that the Directional Buttons are pressed (combine for diagonal movement). If you quickly press the respective button twice, Bangai-O will dash.

SCATTER BOMBS

If you have sufficient Scatter Bomb Energy in reserve you can fire a Scatter Bomb by pressing the Trigger R (or Y Button in XA control mode). In Riki Mode the projectiles fired are Homing Missiles, in Mami Mode they are Ricochet Lasers.

During a Scatter Bomb attack you can neither shoot nor move momentarily, so be careful!

SCATTER BOMB COUNTER STRIKES!

- Attack multiple enemies !!!
- The projectile spread can defend Bangai-O from attack...

The art of Counter Striking is the key to harnessing the true offensive capabilities of Bangai-O. The power of Bangai-O's Scatter Bomb Attack is directly proportional to the number and intensity of enemy bullets close to Bangai-O. In other words, the number of shots Bangai-O fires in a Scatter Bomb Attack is determined by how many enemy projectiles are directly adjacent to Bangai-O at the exact moment the Scatter Bomb is released, and how fast they are moving. The greater the number of enemy projectiles, the faster they are moving and the closer they are to Bangai-O, the more powerful your Scatter Bomb will be. For best effects, wait until multiple enemy bullets are just about to hit Bangai-O before launching a Counter Strike. Time it wrong, and the results can be lethal. Of course, if you time it right....

ABOUT BANGAI-O

Bangai-O is a super robot controlled by Riki and Mami. Ban (Riki's and Mami's father) hacked into the data of the robot production of the SF Kosmo Gang and built a robot which fights for justice.

FATHER (BAN MAKISHI)

Ban Makishi is the father of Riki and Mami who tends to be rather useless as an inventor. He is supposed to manage the People's Police in order to use his inventions as often as he can. His hobby is hacking.

EXPLOSION SYSTEM

The number of explosions refers to the entire number of all current on-screen explosions. This includes not only the explosions of attacking enemies, but also the neutralization of enemy bullets as well as the destruction of stationary items in the environment.

The greater the number of current explosions, the more points and Scatter Bomb Energy you will be awarded.

V SYMBOL

The V Symbol icon provides the player with a temporary laser shield which makes Bangai-O invulnerable to attack for a short duration. In addition the perimeter of the shield acts as a lethal close range weapon. The V Symbol items are very rare, so use them wisely.

TIP:

Certain special enemies can mirror Bangai-O's use of the V Symbol. In such cases, you will not be able to attack them until your own V Symbol shield is deactivated.

BUILDING

The individual levels offer not only enemies but also several obstacles and buildings.

Normal Blocks

Destructible blocks. A block turns into a fruit after being destroyed.

Indestructible Blocks

Indestructible blocks. Cannot be destroyed, oddly enough.

Explosive Blocks

Both large and small. Trigger a chain reaction by making one block explode.

Special Walls

There are walls which only certain bullet types can penetrate.

Doors

There are two types of doors: those which close as soon as Bangai-O passes by and those which open when certain enemies are destroyed.

Generator

Generates either enemies or blocks. There are strong and weak generators.

Enemy Structures

Destructible buildings and such. Turns into a fruit after being destroyed.

News Satellite

If Bangai-O touches this satellite the player will receive useful information (and sometimes, not so useful!)

SPACE FRUIT

If you destroy enemies or buildings, different types of Space Fruit appear. The higher your explosion count, the more valuable the fruit. The scoring ranking is: Oranges • Apples • Bananas • Pineapple • Watermelon.

END OF LEVEL

If you defeat the high score of the current level, you will receive different bonus points, depending on your level stats. Your name and your score will also be registered in the score table. Your name is then automatically remembered for future high scores. If you terminate the level without completing it, your name will not be registered.

Requirements for bonus score

Maximum Explosion Bonus

The highest number of accumulated explosions within a level.

Intact bonus

If you reach end of level without being damaged at all.

GAME INTERRUPTION

If you press the Start Button while playing, you pause the game and access the Pause Menu. From here select your desired action with the Directional Button and confirm with the Start Button. The game cannot be paused during dialog scenes.

Resume Play!

Get back into the action right where you left off.

Quit Current Game!

Quits your current game and returns you to the Level Selection screen.

CHARACTERS

Gai, the Big Boss

The leader of the evil SF Kosmo Gang crime syndicate. He is the heart of their criminal activities. He is a cruel, powerful man who values the loyalty of his subjects. However, he will not tolerate any form of treachery or disobedience. His persistent assaults on Riki and Mami make you wonder if he has an ulterior motive for attacking them...

Sabu, the street urchin

As his reputation suggests, Sabu is one of the lowest ranking members in the SF Kosmo Gang. He appears and disappears constantly. Nobody knows if it is the same person, or if he has a double. He dreams of running his own restaurant in the future, but unfortunately, he is not very talented when it comes to preparing Takoyaki (octopus pellets) and simply cannot resist the waffles of the goldfish game salesman.

Mrs. M, the informant

An attractive woman whom provides Riki and Mami with information via the satellites positioned throughout the levels. The information is sometimes useful, sometimes stupid. She is very greedy and demands unreasonably high information fees. Mrs. M is really a bored housewife residing in Minami Senju, who has been married for 3 years. She keeps her activities as an informer hidden from her husband.

Tasogare Deka, the undercover detective

An experienced official of the Nasugamama Guard who infiltrated the SF Kosmo Gang's undercover to find his lost daughter whom he believes has been abducted by the syndicate. He is very trustworthy, even though his younger colleagues mock his conventional methods of investigation. His diet is limited to Anpan (dough filled with sweet beans) and milk.

Mr. Saraman, the high school teacher

Saraman is a teacher at Riki's and Mami's school. He exclusively teaches health education. He hates violence, but believes there are no excuses for truant pupils whom he tracks down and drags back to school. His desire to catch Riki borders on the unhealthy.

Miss W, the informer's sister

The sister of Mrs. M is a high priestess on Osore-zan (the mountain of fear) where she channels the spirits of dead leaders and lets them communicate with Riki and Mami. Her personality is irritable, yet she changes noticeably as soon as a ghost takes possession of her. As a child, she went missing for more than eight years after disappearing with her sister in the mountains.

Pai Yoshi, the spy

In the name of a rival gang, the Realm of Darkness, Paikichi joined the SF Kosmo Gang to learn about their robot technology. He steals technology when he gets the chance. He is always interested in the personal affairs of others.

Kenji, the lawyer

The lawyer of the SF Kosmo Gang. He charges obscene amounts of money for his services and uses loopholes in the law to legally protect his criminal clients. He spent much of his youth in France and is intimately familiar with criminal law. He likes baking bread and eating snails.

86, the bride of the gangster

She used to be one of the leaders of the New York mob but was dismissed due to re-organization. She joined the SF Kosmo Gang and quickly worked her way up the ladder. Even though she grew up in New York she does not speak any English, and instead chooses to communicate using pictures! She loves Jazz.

Hashioka, master builder

Hashioka owns the construction company which builds all the illegal space stations for the SF Kosmo Gang. He has numerous contracts with the gang, but he still lives in a shed since, so far, not a single station has been completed! He looks like a barbarian, yet when talking about construction, he displays a refined knowledge of modern architecture and machinery. His true hobbies are harp recitals and art collecting.

Nisegai (doppelganger of Gai)

Nisegai is a Gai look alike, which the SF Kosmo gang uses sometimes to pose as Gai during battle. A professional doppelganger must be very committed to his work, since they must give up their lives to become someone else. Nisegai became Gai's doppelganger at the age of 10, and nobody remembers his true identity. His motto is: "You must fool your co-workers before you can fool your enemies."

Black Riki

Black Riki appears to be Riki's double, but in truth he is Riki's younger brother Saburo who wants to take revenge on the Makishi family for abandoning him when he was just a baby. When Black Riki discovers that Riki is the star of a hit videogame (a dream of Black Riki's for years) he snaps and goes looking for Riki.

Stevens, soldier, 16th class

Stevens is a soldier of the 16th battalion, a special military unit dubbed the Yamada killer troop. Well 'troop' would be more accurate, as Stevens is in fact the only soldier in the 16th battalion! He is an expert in all forms of armed and unarmed combat and is equipped with state of the art weaponry. He is completely dedicated to his missions and would rather die than fail. His unit is one of the most feared in the entire galaxy, despite consisting of only a single soldier.

Miss Weather

Miss Weather presents the weather forecast at a local TV station. She is very successful, and is considering starting her own business since she is currently in such great demand! In the past, she had a unique experience when she performed as a singer together with two colleagues from the local TV station. Once she was involved in a scandal surrounding an actor. Today she regrets a little that she picked her career over love.

Bitter student

This guy is an impoverished student. He studies in a rural branch of the school so he can keep a close eye on his many brothers and sisters, whom he looks after. His parents divorced after a big fight and abandoned their children! He is so concerned for their mental welfare that he lies to his brothers and sisters and tells them their parents were eaten by Guwanji! He dreams of becoming a famous scientist and someday traveling into space to conduct his research.

Montgomery

Montgomery is a sheep from Mongolia who speaks like a narrator in a pulp fiction novel. He is mostly harmless, but will ramble all day long if you let him.

Representative of Gimunema

He is a representative of Gimunema. He is completely convinced that Gimunema is the finest food on earth and the solution to the world's food shortage. His strength is his hobby, because he loves to eat Gimunema on rice. His true strength only emerges when he eats Gimunema on rice.

Harumage, boss

Harumage is the secret head of Dan Star's shadow government. He rules cruelly with an iron fist, and is even feared by government officials. He is so powerful he could trigger a war by simply snapping his fingers. He dreams of marrying a geisha called Otomi and loves Cuban cigars.

Yomeiri Maske (masked wedding rescuer)

He is the star of a popular kids TV show about a hero who saves the day by halting secret weddings organized by an evil wedding syndicate! He saves the day by spoiling the celebrations, normally by pretending to be the bride at the altar. Weird!

Sukedachi Zukin (veiled helper)

Zukin is one of the biggest stars of the Eihoh film production company that was huge during the early Showa ages. He has been performing on stage since he was a one year old and has become an excellent actor. At the age of 30 he suffered from a severe illness and his career declined. But a few years later he managed a miraculous comeback. He takes acting very seriously. When asked to participate in a TV advertisement for a popular brand of cup noodles he was so insulted that he stabbed the person responsible to death.

Core Boy (Koa-Zo)

Koa-Zo is a sentient AI being created by a division of the SF Kosmo Gang called Core to manage different parts of the gang's computer infrastructure. Koa-Zo is so advanced he has developed basic human language skills and emotions. Currently, there are around five different characters at Core, all of whom are all completely useless and offer no resistance to Riki and Mami at all.

Core Girl (Koa Mi)

Koa Mi is one of the most useless characters at Core. She loves occultism, and her hobbies include witchcraft and magic. She sees the future and past of everyone she meets, even if she doesn't want to.

Core Fighter (Koa Susumu)

Another useless Core character. At the end of the Edo era, as an incompetent Samurai, he believed in his sword and fought against the new wind of the Meiji era. Unfortunately, he wasn't a particularly good fighter and didn't help much. He does not admit to himself that he is weak, so instead he claims that all his enemies are unusually strong.

Core Cat (Neo Koa)

Another useless character at Core. Someone at Core asked the question: "Can a cat become a guard dog?" So Neo Koa was designed at great length and great expense. But it is, and always will be, a cat, and thus doesn't give a darn about what is going on around it.

Core King

The Core King is one of the most deadly enemies in Bangai-O. Just kidding. Like his Core companions, he too is completely useless. In reality the Core King is the much feared King of Darkness who landed secretly in Sugamo sometime in 1999. He was supposed to land on the Vesuv but missed. He loves joke telephone calls which he feels inspired to make at least once a week.
